

SOCIETY.

Bride for Bride-elect.
Novel Japanese appointments were cleverly carried out at a bride party of the ladies of the Union. The bride of New Castle was hosted yesterday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry L. Snyder in East Fairview avenue in honor of Miss Helen Frances Barnes of Uniontown, whose marriage to Dr. Alfred Goro Howard took place at Uniontown, Pa., on Tuesday, November 22. Miss Snyder is a member of the bride party. A color scheme of lavender and yellow was carried out in the living room and reception hall, huge yellow and lavender chrysanthemums being lavishly used. The lights were shaded with attractive Japanese shades. The ladies were pretty hand-painted Japanese scenes, while the favors were Japanese silver boxes and Japanese bon-bon dishes. At the close of the games, a dainty luncheon, in which the Japanese idea was also carried out, was served. The luncheon was in the form of individual Japanese men and women carrying parasols and fans. The prizes were captured by Miss Snyder, Mrs. T. E. Jamison, Miss Gwendolyn Barnes, Mrs. F. T. Evans and Mrs. O. L. Eaton. Miss Barnes was awarded the special prize.

The out of town guests were Mrs. James H. Norland of McKeesport, Mrs. Herbert Knox of Pittsburgh, Misses Lella, Frances, Arthur, Miss Gwendolyn Barnes, Misses Jesse and Joan Moore, Miss Mary Taylor and Miss Nellie Witt of Uniontown, Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Dalglish of Philadelphia.

This afternoon Mrs. Brooks Goodin, formerly Miss Mary Hickey of Uniontown, is hosted at a luncheon at the home of Mrs. H. L. Snyder in East Fairview avenue. A number of out of town guests, including Mrs. H. L. Snyder, of New Castle, are present.

From next Monday up until after the wedding the bride party will be entertained at the home of Mrs. H. L. Snyder in East Fairview avenue. The bride-elect, Miss Barnes, is one of Uniontown's most popular young ladies and a number of her friends have been planned in her honor. Wednesday afternoon, November 23, Miss Anne Kennedy of Uniontown will give a luncheon in Miss Barnes' honor.

Recent Bride Honor Given.
Mrs. Charles MacMillen of Scotland, a recent bride, was honor guest at a large and handsomely appointed musical and fancy work party at which Mrs. Arthur Preston Freese, Uniontown, presided, afternoon at her home on South Ninth street, West Hill. About 50 guests were present. The hours were from 2:30 until 5 o'clock. Attractive decorations prevailed in the dining room, where a color scheme of red and green was carried out in a very effective manner. A full set of glassware of red carnations formed the pretty centerpiece while the cardstock at either end of the table were decorated with red silk shades. From the center of the chandelier to the four corners of the table were strung garlands of red and green. The hostess and her honor guest were assisted in receiving by Mrs. H. L. McKee, Mrs. J. M. Young and Mrs. L. E. Jamison.

A delightful musical program was carried out. Throughout the afternoon selections were beautifully rendered on a harp by J. Baker, while piano duets were played by Misses Phoebe Dunn and Miss Jennie Jennings, and vocal solos rendered by Mrs. MacMillen, the honor guest, completed the musical program. Mrs. MacMillen is an accomplished musician and her selections yesterday were very fine. Miss Dunn and Miss Jennings also played in a very creditable manner. A beautifully appointed luncheon was served about 4:30 o'clock. Mrs. MacMillen presided at the coffee table.

Well-attended was an open meeting of the Women's Missionary Circle of the First Baptist church held last evening in the church. Mrs. J. E. Baker presided over the meeting. The following program was rendered: Selection on the pipe organ, Miss Rilla Humbert; scripture reading, Mrs. E. C. Barker; singing, piano solo, Miss Pearl Ketch; reading, Miss Marie Sanford; vocal solo, Miss Elizabeth McMillen; reading, Mrs. E. A. E. Palmquist; piano duet, Misses Phoebe Dunn and Miss Jennie Jennings. The program was a delightful one and was exceptionally well rendered. A silver offering was taken and $15 was realized for the treasury.

In honor of his 50th birthday anniversary, Henry W. Landman, manager of the Moss Tailoring establishment, was honored a surprise party last evening at his home on Church place. The affair was cleverly arranged by Mrs. Landman and was attended by about twelve of Mr. Landman's friends. The evening was pleasantly spent at cards and at midnight the guests accompanied in the carriage to the home of the hostess, where a social hour was held and refreshments were served.

EVANGELISTS COMING.

To Connelville 11,000 Signers are Secured by Monday.

David and Mills, the evangelists who have been conducting a very successful evangelistic campaign at Scotland, have accepted an invitation to come to Connelville providing the invitation is signed by 1,000 Connelville people by Monday morning. A committee composed of several local ministers were at Scotland yesterday afternoon and were successful in persuading Evangelist David to choose Connelville as the place for holding his next campaign. A delegation from Uniontown was at Scotland last evening and extended the evangelists a cordial invitation to conduct the next campaign at Uniontown as the people there are very anxious for the services. The local ministers are very enthusiastic over the prospects of the evangelists coming to Connelville and the Ministerial Association is holding a special meeting this afternoon at the Y. M. C. A. to form plans to secure the necessary signatures before Monday morning. In order to accomplish this the matter will have to be taken up in the churches Sunday morning.

Mills and Davis have been drawing large crowds at Scotland and the Scotland people are very anxious that they move the campaign to Connelville at the close of the services there on Thanksgiving. They have promised that 1,000 church people from Scotland will come to Connelville on any evening and participate in the campaign. Davis and Mills are sent out by the National Evangelistic Association and ask no guarantee. They provide their own literature which is largely free and has a reading capacity of 2,000 people. Only volunteer offerings will be taken.

BLOOD STANDS STILL

Piles Can't Be Cured Until Circulation is Restored.

It is useless to try to cure piles by operating or use of salves or suppositories—so long as the blood is stagnant in the lower bowel, new tumors will continue to form. Clear the blood—free the circulation. Then piles will leave for good. An instantaneous, scientific, internal remedy by Dr. Leonard's Hem-Roid, sold under guarantee by A. A. Clarke, Connelville, Pa. Hem-Roid does the work thoroughly. $1 for 21 days treatment. Dr. Leonard Co., Station B, Buffalo, N. Y. Write for booklet.

MORE PINKHAM CURES

Added to the Long List due to This Famous Remedy.

Oronogo, Mo.—"I was simply a nervous wreck. I could not walk across the floor without my heart fluttering and I could not even receive a letter. Every month I had such a bearing down sensation, as if the lower parts would fall out. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done my nerves a great deal of good and has also relieved the bearing down. I recommended it to some friends and one of them has been greatly benefited by it."—Mrs. M. E. McKnight, Oronogo, Mo.

Another Grateful Woman.
St. Louis, Mo.—"I was bothered terribly with a female weakness and had backache, bearing down pains and pains in lower parts. I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound regularly and used the Sanative Wash and now I have no more troubles that way."—Mrs. A. H. Henshaw, 622 Prescott Ave., St. Louis, Mo.

Because your case is a difficult one, doctors having done you no good, do not anything to suffer without giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. It surely has cured many cases of female ills, such as inflammation, ulceration, displacements, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pain, backache, that bearing-down feeling, indigestion, dizziness, and nervous prostration. It costs but a little to try it, and the result is worth millions to many suffering women.

THE SOISSON.

"A Royal Slave" Tonight. In the craze for sensationalism, modern authors, proceed to extremes and produce scenes that are repulsive to even the most sensational loving theatergoer. This is amply proven by the fact that plays which depend entirely upon incidents of this class are being rapidly withdrawn from the stage through want of patronage. In the successful drama, morbid sensationalism is happily not in evidence and its place is taken by a stirring tale of heart interest, brilliant of comedy and bright spectacle. From the story of the curtain, the interest with a constant stream of birth, music and interesting situations continues until the concluding scenes. The cast in a capable one, special scenic effects which depict life in Old Mexico are carried out to give atmosphere to this and of romantic "Slave" comes to the Soisson theatre tonight.

INSURGENCY: ITS CAUSE AND EFFECT.

Romantic political sound very grand and stirring from the stump, but intelligent people know how to discriminate between vaudeville and tragedy, between drama novel imagination and actual conditions, between the fanciful and the real.

During the recent campaign, a large portion of the country was swept of its test by a spirit of Political Unrest born of unsatisfactory conditions. When times are bad, the people are dissatisfied, and when the public is dissatisfied, the nation is inevitably placed upon the shoulders of the governing power.

This is sometimes a just verdict and at other times a very unjust verdict, and it frequently happens that the emotional voter who demands a change falls from the frying pan into the fire.

THE SWAN SONG OF WILLIAM J. BRYAN.

William Jennings Bryan, who dominated the Democratic party from 1896 to 1908, inclusive, has evidently passed down into the ranks of the Has-beens, and the passing is not without a perfect understanding on his part. He sings the swan song in the last issue of The Commonwealth, his personal and official organ. Hear him: I see full many triumphant spheres Of dignity and renown; Here chant the warrior's changing spears. There sparkle the victor's crown, Here the poet sings, and the world is hushed To listen unto his lays; There the statesman stands with his honors shining, In this splendor of his days; But whether in sphere, or high or low On shore or on the sea, No rich reward will I ever know— There is no place for me. There is no place for Willie in the new order of politics. He has had his day and he has signally failed to make good, chiefly because he was more consistent than wise. He clung to his erroneous errors with the tenacity of that curious infant, the crab, famous for his backward progress, and he backed the Democratic party like the ditch. In some States he succeeded in making it the third party where once it was the second. No rich reward will he know, because none has he deserved. To gratify a personal ambition he would have brought misery to the land. He may have been honest in his first days, but for Free Silver and Free Trade, but in the light of experience he could not possibly have been thereafter. He is not so stupid as that. He clung to error because he was not man enough to admit his mistakes and start anew. He was a splendid victor when it stood for safe and sane politics, not the least of which were the Tariff doctrines of Samuel J. Randall.

Farewell, thou Peerless One! Set for good in thy sun. The splendor of thy days Is dim and dark in haze. Sixteen to one line led; Free trade at last is dead, Frugolistic politics Has gone to attack.

The Humanist of Fayette county is slowly interesting upon the minds of brutal people that they cannot be cruel to animals without running counter to the law.

Another football player has been killed at Brooklyn, and still the merry play goes on.

McKeenport robbers have an idea that the pigs are almost as valuable as real port.

The Pittsburgh Tech is gradually but surely helping A. Carnegie from the sad fate of dying rich and disgraced.

The American Jack Tar is having the time of his young life just now in London and Paris.

Waiting arenas are not encouraged on the Western Maryland construction.

Since the dry season has set in, Washington county is substituting tough-on-Rats in its place.

Colonel Roosevelt has retired from politics and returned to Africa via the lecture platform.

Somerset county is running down its black handker.

Lafayette is still insurgent. There is a disposition in the ranks of the Republicans to dispense with insurgents and Republicans and return to old-fashioned Republicanism.

The inquest acquitted Thomas McCoy of the murder of Judah Munk, but public sentiment will never forgive the lack of common courtesy toward the family of his victim.

Sturgeon Valley has a rich sound, but it's all sound and little substance.

The policeman's ball was a splendid affair, but it wasn't wild and woolly.

Will Thanksgiving Find You
Still Undecided About a
New Coat or Suit?

It shouldn't. Buying should be done now while assortments are at the best. Every day sees the exit of some of the choicest but, of course, new ones are still arriving. Buy a garment that will give service and satisfaction. This you will be assured of by coming to this old reliable establishment where "value" is paramount and where a reputation has long been established for handling only the best. Every care has been given in selecting our lines and the prices are just as big and attractive as the garments themselves.

Women's Suits

Best way we know to describe these suits is to ask you to come and see them. Whether you buy here or elsewhere you owe it to your pocketbook to see these suits and learn the prices. Plenty of suit har- gams being offered you just now but look at the suits. Examine the material, the lining and finishing and the way they are made and just how they fit. Notice how the coat sets around the collar and over the shoulders. These are tests that you should apply to your suit when you buy. We believe that our years of experience in the suit business has given us some advantages in the buying and of this business and we know that we are in a position to sell you a suit on a narrower margin of profit than other stores in this vicinity. Another thing we know is that our alteration department is in charge of a person competent to make alterations. We believe that if you have a suit want and are in- terested in having good material—a stylish and well fitting garment and a saving of from $5 to $8 on your suit purchases that we ought to sell you your suit. See the garments, learn the prices and buy or not as your pocketbook tells you.

Women's Coats

Lots of talk here about higher prices, how everything costs so much more than in years past, but here is something to think about. Twenty years ago when plush coats were the one good garment, we made a specialty of a 42 inch plush coat at $40. Today plushes are being shown in all up-to-date stores. We have one 50 inches long, a bet- ter plush, if possible, better lining and lots more style and the price is $30. Ask some one who was fortunate enough to have owned one of those coats in former years if they ever succeeded in wearing it out. Other coats here made of cheviot, broadcloth, serges and fancy mix- tures and priced from $12 up to $50.

Misses' Coats

For school or dress our showing of these is unusually large. Broad- cloth, storm serges, diagonals, home spun and caraculs are shown in all sizes and trimmed with velvets, Persian lamb, bird or button of- fets, or made plain. Sizes are from 11 to 18 years.

Children's Coats

In sizes from 6 to 14 years. Grey, tan, red, blue, navy, black and mixtures are shown in twilled chevrons, caraculs and coatings; self- trimmed or with buttons and braids and Persian lamb, silk or velvet collars. We just received a good shipment of these making the assort- ment large.

Good Taste

Low Prices

VERSUS

"I never had a customer who didn't want higher priced furniture than she could afford," said a prominent merchant the other day.

Do you know why this is?

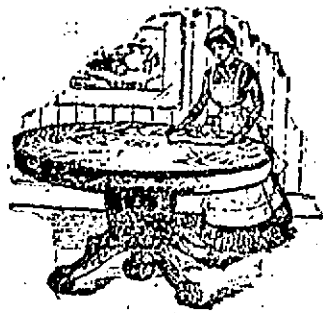

Nearly all the cheap furniture you see in stores is out of harmony with even moderate good taste.

Factories put less attention on their cheaper designs, and buyers as a rule select from these, with but little care.

But we have given this end of our business unusual attention.

Sometimes we have picked just one single, low-priced design that was good, from a whole factory output.

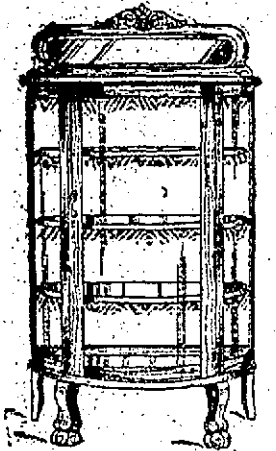

You can get low-priced goods here that you will be proud to own.

USUALLY When the Design of a Table Suits Your Taste, the Price Does Not.

In the Tables which we have unpacked today, the designs are beautiful. No finer appearing Tables ever were sold in Conneltsville, and every Table is built as well as it looks.

We selected the best Tables made by a number of factories, and we bought them at prices, which will save you a lot of money if your dining room needs a Table now.

Extensive Line of China Closets in Genuine Quarter Sawed Oak.

Some plain and some carved—some in Golden Oak and some in Early English finish. Our China Closets are made to match any style of table. Those with the claw foot or those with the plain Colonial foot. Variety of patterns, and with the immense assortment we have to show, you cannot help but be pleased.

Games Tonight.
Johnstown at Connellsville.
Uniontown at McKeesport.

The Cokers play Johnstown on the local hour tonight and it will be a game for blood. At Johnstown Saturday night McKeesport's men came within a single score of winning and they hope to get revenge over the Fogarty bunch tonight.

John will be the first appearance of the Johnstown team here and already the advance sale of seats indicates a big house.

Uniontown lost last night. McKeesport being the team that did it. The Uniontown team was even with the visitors in field shots, but such work on the foul line. Jimmy Brown started shooting 'em but that didn't suit Big Chief Kinkade. He tried it for a while and then chucked himself. Ferat was worse than the other two and could not locate the basket at all.

Where, where in that center man? The Coker fans have been promised one ever since the season opened and he hasn't appeared yet. One man missed the ball and the others never seemed to connect. There was a flourish of trumpets when the signing of Rollins was announced.

The Eastern League has adopted J. S. Albright's suggestion of an "assist" reward in basketball scoring.

John Halsall has jumped the Eastern League already and reported to Uniontown. Tapping the coin bag at the county seat again. Why not spend a little down this way?

Unknown Killed.
Struck by the Pullman street car about 6:20 last night as he staggered across the track at Barton's crossing, south of Uniontown, an unknown man was so badly hurt that he died in the Uniontown hospital at 2 o'clock this morning.

MR. George C. Huey has studied with eminent teachers both in America and Europe, spending the last three years of his preparation under the famous master and teacher, Prof. Bruno Zwinster of Leipzig, Germany.

Prof. Zwinster has the following to say of Mr. Huey: "Mr. Huey is going back to America well equipped for his chosen work. He has acquired everything that is essential to good artistic piano playing." Signed, Prof. Bruno Zwinster.

As a student of the piano, and as a teacher Mr. Huey is thorough and conscientious in all his work and relation with his students.

Mr. Huey has under his tuition at the present time some of the most able and artistic pianists in Western Pennsylvania, some of whom have received very flattering offers for concert work with the Pittsburgh Festival Orchestra, Franz Kolar and Emilie Faurer.

If you wish to study piano with Mr. Huey, it is necessary to have ability, patience and a firm determination to work, for through the work of the piano you shall know him. Terms very reasonable.

Orine Cured Him of DRUNKENNESS

Her Husband Now Spends His Evenings at Home.

She bought Orine from the drugist in her home town—she bought it after reading the Orine Free Booklet. In the booklet she read of the wonderful cures of drunkenness which were accomplished by the use of Orine. One of the many cases coming to her attention, a mechanic earning $25.00 per week who had not taken a full day's sleep for many months, was induced to try Orine. A complete cure was effected. He now became worth more to his firm, receiving an advance in pay, and has purchased a new home. He is now showing the merits of Orine, and is a powerful, absolutely trustworthy, and reliable agent for the sale of Orine. He is a powerful, absolutely trustworthy, and reliable agent for the sale of Orine. He is a powerful, absolutely trustworthy, and reliable agent for the sale of Orine.

For a number of years we have been agents for Orine. During that time we have had occasion to be convinced beyond a doubt, that Orine is a reliable remedy, worthy of recommendation. ## MISS SELINA LUE and the Soap-box Babies

by MARIE THOMPSON DAVIES

Illustrations by Magnus G. Kettner

"And last, but not least, tell me the tale of Blossom, the lady of my heart, the only person who really appreciates me for my true worth, which is permitted candy in limited quantities and a shoulder cushioned in brawn and exalted in height. Blossom is a lady of discernment and has the courage of her predilections."

"Mr. Alan," said Miss Selina Lue as she sat down on the step by him and, picking up the little white cat, he set her down on the ground. "The head of the lady in question, began to plait the ruff with caressing fingers, 'they ain't many people I would tell the story of her to. One way or another, I have shot up every soul on the bluff as has asked me. Of course Miss Cynthia knows, for people can't help talking piffles to her, but the rest I found her here, and that is all they need to know."

"It was a year ago last Christmas it happened to me and Charity and I. About dark when I was busy to death doing up supper truck—as you see, that's my busiest time of day—a girl come in here I never saw before and she looked wild and white she carried a bundle in her arms, but I never suspected anything, so I just sold her a box of crackers and she went on out. Then I plumb forgot her, as I ought to have done, for she wasn't happy seeming, and such as she ought to be on my mind."

"Miss Selina Lue, please forgive me for asking. Perhaps I ought not to know." And Mr. Alan caught one string of the limp little bonnet and curled it tenderly around his finger. "I really do—love the little mite, if that's any excuse for my—"

"And there I found her. I wasn't known where that wild-eyed girl—mother in a wandering, lonesome and unhappy."

"She chose the place to leave the baby—wisely," said Mr. Alan, as he walked over to the counter and slipped his finger into the curled, pink, little hand which grasped it firmly even from the depths.

"Yes, you can always put depend on me in the sense and good feelings of a cow," answered Miss Selina Lue with sweet unconsciousness. "Did you ever think what a noble life that lead—always a giving for other people who don't show no more appreciation than a bucket of bran and a little water? If cows and asses was there I want to think a cow helped to watch over him that night. It makes me feel easier about slavery; for cows they knows things same as humans."

CHAPTER III

How Miss Selina Lue Came to the Bluff.

"I don't hold with thinking up bad happenings onto people, for sometimes it might kinder hit 'em on some blind side we don't know about and take."

"Now," said Miss Selina Lue with a sigh of relief, "every string is tied up. The emphyse held out fine and there are two pink rags left. Everybody forgot all about the yellow jackets and put your mind on the making of the lemonade. I'll get the lemon." And as she spoke she rose from the top step and started into the grocery. She paused for a moment and ran her eyes over the group huddled along the steps while laughter strove with sympathy in her expression.

THE GREAT BARGAIN STORES

Everybody appears now to be hunting bargains, good investments, the stores that offer the greatest attractions and greatest inducements. We claim, for general stores, that we offer the greatest bargains, the greatest inducements, have the greatest attractions of any stores in Fayette or Westmoreland counties. The great big business we are doing now, is the best evidence in the world, that the people of the communities, in which our stores are located, feel the same way. The winter season is here, and you people wanting to buy clothing, such as underwear, shoes, suits, overcoats and head wear, can satisfy yourself that our stores are the best place to buy, by giving us a trial.

IT IS A GOOD TIME TO STOCK UP YOUR HOUSE WITH WINTER PROVISIONS.

Years ago, several well regulated houses had potatoes, apples, cabbage and other vegetables stored in the cellar for the winter's use; a hog salted down, often a quarter of beef, a keg of good butter, etc. Our stores are now doing a large business of that sort. At the present prices you can afford to have your potatoes, apples, cabbage, buckwheat flour and other necessities in the cellar. You can afford to buy a quantity of flour, a quarter of beef, a whole hog. Go to a Union Supply Company store and see what inducements we can offer you in prices, and what fine quality of goods we can supply you with.

The Famous Rayo

Gives the Best Light at Any Price

When you pay more than the Rayo price for a lamp, you are paying for extra decorations that cannot add to the quality of the light. You can't pay for a better light, because there is none. An oil light has the least effect on the human eye, and the Rayo Lamp is the best oil lamp made, though low in price. You can pay $5, $10, or $20 for some other lamp, and although you get a more costly lamp, you can't get a better light than the white, mellow, diffused, unflattering light of the low-priced Rayo.

Has a strong, durable shade-holder. This season's burner adds to the strength and appearance. Made of solid brass, milled, and easily polished.

Study the Situation

Have you been amazed at the rapid growth and development of the 5 & 10c wall paper business?

Have you tried to explain why the idea has leaped so quickly into public favor?

MR. FRANK HALL
Originator of the 5 & 10c Wall Paper Idea and Founder of the Peerless 5 & 10c Wall Paper Co.

Have you doubted or disbelieved the stories you have heard of the tremendous volume of our sales?

The answer is not hard to find. The evidence is ready. It will answer all your conjectures and allay all your doubts—if doubts you have had.

Just study the situation a little. There are now over $200,000,000 worth of 5 & 10c goods sold in this country every year. The 5 & 10c idea is the most popular, the most successful and the most profitable one in American merchandising. The business has built up such an enviable reputation that it compels admiration and inspires confidence.

Many people unfamiliar with the business imagine that the profits on 5 & 10c articles must be small. Such is not the case. The profits are unusually large, and the operating expenses small.

But while the profits are large, the saving to the public is considerable. And the public, no matter where, is always ready to support any enterprise which brings them a saving on reliable merchandise. This is clearly demonstrated by the success of the companies now operating chains of stores throughout the country.

We believed a little over a year ago that conditions were right and waiting for the launching of a 5 & 10c wall paper enterprise.

The best answer and the shortest is the tremendous success the Peerless 5 & 10c Wall Paper Co. has enjoyed.

We now have the largest and most profitable retail wall paper business in the world.

We are arranging to establish our own factories, and to build up a chain of 5 & 10c wall paper stores in all large cities.

For this purpose the capital of the company has been increased to $500,000 and a portion of the stock is offered for general subscription at par, $1.00 a share. It is a bargain at that price; at ten dollars it would still be a bargain. It will make more money for you than you ever made before on any investment.

What we offer you is part ownership in an established profitable mercantile business. A business of known value, safer and more secure than any other line of legitimate merchandising in the world. We offer you absolute safety of principal and large permanent profits.

That is all there is to it.

Send us your subscription and check today.

Any question you may wish to ask will be answered promptly.

Send them along with your subscription
